

OHIO IS SAFE FOR HANNA.

Although Margin in Legislature is Uncomfortably Close.

JOINT BALLOT MAJORITY FIVE.

The Close Counties were Delaware Noble and Wood.

THE VOTE BEING CANVASSED.

Bushnell's Plurality Now Exceeds 48,000. Every Point is Being Contested in the Official Count--Chairman McConville, of the Democratic Committee, Makes Indiscriminate Charges of Fraud--Senator Voight, One of the Independent Republicans Elected in Hamilton County, Says He Will Vote for a Republican for Senator.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 4.--Many talk about a crisis in Ohio. Some believe that a crisis is impending. The talk about a combine in the legislature against Senator Hanna has subsided, pending the interest in the official counting of the vote in close counties. As the official canvass of the vote in the eighty-eight counties proceeded today the Republican plurality on the state ticket increased and on the legislative tickets it appeared to be getting toward a very close shave.

While the Republican plurality on state ticket exceeds 25,000, the vote on the legislative ticket is almost as close as it could be. For this reason there is still unusual anxiety at the respective state headquarters of both parties. The Republicans still claim that the legislature stands seventy-five Republicans to seventy Democrats on joint ballot for senator, and that their candidates for representative in three of the close counties have been elected by the following pluralities: Delaware county 23; Wood county 25; Noble county 35; a total of 142 in the pluralities of these three counties. A change of seventy-two votes, properly distributed in these three counties would therefore have turned the result in the legislature by giving these three representatives to the Democrats. Then the legislature would have stood seventy-two Republicans and seventy-three Democrats on joint ballot for senator.

SMALLNESS OF PLURALITIES. When it is remembered that the total vote of Ohio last year was over one million, and is almost one million this year, it is readily seen that seventy-one is such a small percentage that it cannot be clearly expressed in figures or fractions or language. And this is what makes the Democratic state committee continue to claim the legislature and the Republican state committee to be so closely on guard in watching the counting in the close counties. The official count of Delaware county is in, but with protests and notices of contests from the Democrats and the same is true of Noble county. The official count of Wood county may not be completed till Saturday, although they expect to get through to-morrow. In Wood county to-day the Democrats protested against counting the vote of a precinct where the place of voting was outside of the precinct, but within the ward. Had this precinct been thrown out it would have elected the Democratic candidate for representative by a plurality of five instead of the Republican candidate by twenty-eight. The vote of the precinct was counted and the Democratic protest filed. Other technicalities are expected in the progress of the vote in that county to-morrow. In Noble county there was a long contest over the counting of scratched tickets that were finally thrown out because they were not properly marked. This was a Republican loss. Every point is being contested in the official count of the close counties.

CHAIRMAN NASH'S CLAIM.

Chairman Nash says to-night that the Republicans have a safe majority of five on joint ballot in the legislature. He admits that the pluralities are small in some counties, but claims they are safe. He has no doubt of the result in any of the counties which he claims except possibly, Wood county, and in the event of the loss of that representative, he says the legislature would still stand seventy-four Republicans to seventy-five Democrats and have a majority of three on joint ballot for senator. Chairman Nash said the returns from the Thirteenth district showed that the Republicans had a plurality of 432, so that there is no longer any of the state senators in doubt, and the senate will stand nineteen Democrats to seventeen Republicans.

At Republican state headquarters, Summit county is not considered so doubtful as heretofore and its two representatives are being conceded to the Democrats. This would make the house fifty-eight Democrats and fifty-one Republicans. Chairman McConville does not admit that the Republicans have carried the Thirteenth district for their candidate for state senator and he still claims the representatives from Noble, Delaware, Wood, Muskingum and other counties claimed by the Republicans. He also expects the official count to give the Democrats two of the twelve members of the legislature from Cuyahoga county. In all these counties and in others he says there will be contests for the seats in the event of the certificates of election being given to the Republicans.

MC CONVILLE CRIES FRAUD.

Chairman McConville charges fraud in the close counties and in some Republican counties. He says nearly all the close counties have gone Republican heretofore and the Republicans still have the machinery in these counties. He says the returns have been held back and it looks suspicious. Other counties have completed their counting while the doubtful counties are still at it. He says the result was known definitely in Cincinnati yesterday morning and he cannot get definite results even to-night from Cleveland, where he expects the vote to be very close on two or three members of the legislature. Chairman McConville will remain here on duty until the official count of all the counties is completed.

COURT MAY BE APPEALED TO.

Late to-night it became known that the courts would be resorted to for the purpose of preventing boards of election from issuing certificates to the

ONE MORE COON,

To Express the Satisfaction that Many Citizens Feel

OVER THE DEFEAT OF GORMAN.

And the Fact that Maryland will have Another Republican Senator--The Official Count of the Ballots Leaves no Further Doubt that the Republicans will Control Both Branches of the Legislature. They will have 17 Majority on Joint Ballot--Some Men who are Willing to Succed the Maryland Boss--A Weak Democratic Wall.

"I am the Real Thing."

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 4.--An official count of the ballots cast on Tuesday last, made in most of the counties to-day, leaves no further room for doubt that the Republicans have control of both branches of the legislature, and that a Republican will succeed Arthur P. Gorman in the United States senate. Five members of the assembly and one senator were taken from the Democratic list of probabilities and added to that of the Republicans. Three of the members and the senator are from Talbot county and one member each from Prince George's and Carroll. This gives the Republicans 49 members in the house and the Democrats 42. It also gives the Republicans 18 senators to 8 for the Democrats, and a majority on joint ballot of 17.

The result in Talbot county arose from the fact that eighteen votes in Tigham precinct had been counted twice for the Democratic ticket. This being corrected, gave the Republican legislative candidates majorities ranging from sixteen to nineteen votes. In Prince George's a similar correction elected Underwood, (Republican), by four votes. While in Carroll the recount showed that Stansbury, (Republican), defeated Crouse, (Democrat), by twenty-three votes. The doubtful votes in Montgomery and Washington counties also went to the Republicans by small majorities.

The Democratic state headquarters were closed to-day and all the members of the state committee have gone to their respective homes. Before leaving, however, Chairman Murray Vandiver gave out the following statement: "As far as the joint convention of the general assembly is concerned, the matter is not entirely settled and will not be until the official returns are made up. In regard to the house of delegates, I am still of the opinion that the Democrats will have a majority in that body and will organize it. The election in several of the counties is so close that it is impossible to tell at present which side has won and I believe a recount will be demanded in Montgomery county by the Democrats, who claim that they have elected at least one, and possibly two members of the house, while the Republicans claim that they have elected all three. A recount may also be demanded in Talbot and in Carroll counties to determine the result with certainty. At any rate we have not given up our expectation of controlling the house whether we have a majority on joint ballot or not.

"The Democratic candidates who have been defeated in the close counties have been in many instances noted as anti-Gorman men, while in the same counties the Gorman men have been elected. In one or two instances, which I could specify these men were cut simply because they were not believed to be Gorman men. This shows that the anti-Gorman outcry did not hurt the Democrats in the counties, for there the senator has always had his stronghold. To a large extent I am more convinced than ever by the result of this election that the anti-Gorman sentiment is almost entirely confined to the city of Baltimore and that the Democrats of the state are measurably free from it. In my opinion, even if it should turn out that the senator is defeated, he is stronger to-day in the country districts of the state than he ever was."

Among those most prominently mentioned as the probable successor to Senator Gorman are Alexander Shaw, former Congressman John V. L. Findlay, Postmaster General Gary and Congressman Sidney E. Mudd.

REPUBLICANS OAIN

Over the 1890 Vote in Kansas in the Recent County Elections.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.--Two-thirds of the 106 Kansas counties so far reporting show the Republicans to have elected a majority of the county officers. The Republicans also elected seven district judges and the fusionists six. A gain of two for the fusionists. While the returns show a gain in office for the fusionists over 1890, it is a fact that they have lost votes in almost every county and that the Republicans gained fifty per cent. in the vote compared with last year. The fusionists admit the Republicans have gained in vote, but declare it was caused by many anti-Republican voters for Republican candidates on personal preference because of the absence of the silver issue this year.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 4.--Election returns have been received at Republican headquarters from sixty-three Kansas counties out of 106 and from sixty-eight counties of the Republican headquarters. While both reports agree on large Republican gains over the vote of 1890, they are conflicting in comparison with the vote of 1890, and this must be determined by the official count. About the election of judges there is no dispute. The Populist managers late this afternoon conceded that the result of the judicial elections was a distinct victory for the Republicans.

PENNSYLVANIA'S VOTE

Over 400,000 Less Than in 1896--Official Figures on State Ticket.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 4.--Official returns have been received from nearly every county in the state. With complete figures from the counties which have not yet completed the official count, the full vote of the state for state treasurer and auditor general is shown to be as follows: State treasurer--Beacom, (Rep.), 371,053; Brown, (Dem.), 244,569; Swallow, (Pro.), 117,450; Thompson, (Ind.), 15,204. Total vote, 748,254. Beacom's plurality over Brown, 126,484. Majority of other candidates over Beacom, 6,210. Auditor General--McCauley, (Rep.), 407,301; Ritter, (Dem.), 268,708; Lathrop, (Pro.), 57,615; total vote 733,625. McCauley's plurality over Ritter, 138,595.

McCauley's majority over Ritter and Lathrop, 80,944. The total vote is about 20,000 less than that for state treasurer in 1896, and nearly 450,000 less than was cast in the presidential election of last year. Beacom received 85,692 less votes than were given to Haywood for state treasurer in 1896 and Brown's falls 37,912 below that cast for Meyer, the Democratic candidate in that year. Swallow's vote is nearly 100,000 above that given to Berry, the 1896 Prohibition candidate. The vote for Berry was 20,770.

McKinley's plurality over Bryan last year was 301,175 in a total vote of 1,194,355; his clear majority over all candidates was 262,445.

FOURTH VICTIM

Of the Jackson County Murderer--The Plend Indicted Yesterday, Which Undoubtedly Prevented His Lynching.

RIPLEY, W. Va., Nov. 4.--John Morgan the confessed murderer of the Green family, was indicted to-day by the grand jury. His trial will begin to-morrow at 9 o'clock before Judge Blizard. Nothing but this promptness could have prevented his being lynched. Miss Katie Green, the only one of the family not killed outright last Tuesday night, died to-day, making a clean sweep of the family of four in Tuesday night's tragedy. The people seem content to let the law take its course.

Terrible Triple Tragedy

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 4.--At 7 o'clock to-night a terrible and bloody tragedy occurred in a cottage at the corner of Germania and Gaston avenue, East Dallas, where Mrs. Emma Smith kept a small boarding house. There boarded with her two men, James Boswell and James Barton. Boswell walked into Mrs. Smith's room and shot her in the throat. The man turned on Barton, shooting him twice in the body, then blew his own brains out, falling dead.

In a statement the eight-year-old daughter of Mrs. Smith said: "Uncle Jim Boswell came into the room and said to me, 'Mamma loves Jim Barton more than she does me.' He then shot mamma and also shot Mr. Barton and then ran into the yard and shot himself."

There is no doubt that Mrs. Smith and Barton will die to-night. They were sent to the city hospital. The triple killing caused a great sensation in the neighborhood.

Yellow Fever Situation.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 4.--The yellow fever situation has not improved any since yesterday and the unfavorable turn of affairs following in the wake of the cold wave and the light frost is very disappointing to Dr. Olliphant, president of the board of health. He reiterates, however, that the effects of the cold snap will become apparent in a few days. The record shows that the number of fatalities is greater than that of yesterday and there is no let-up in the new cases.

Deaths--John Vaughan, Henry Neltschmer, Master Sealki, Yodaia Stein, Lucy Honore, Valentine Zeigler, Raven Kennedy.

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 4.--Eleven new cases and one death, Ossian Higgins, is to-day's fever record.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 4.--The state quarantine was raised against all points by Governor Johnston this morning and persons as well as freight can come and go to and from the state at pleasure. Montgomery has raised all quarantine, and with the exception of a few surrounding towns and the shot gun quarantine in the county, all restrictions are off.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 4.--Birmingham has had several heavy frosts and to-day the mayor raised the quarantine against all yellow fever infected points. The railroads have in consequence resumed their regular schedules.

Earthquake Shock out West

SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 4.--A special to the Tribune from Pocatello, Idaho, says: A severe shock of earthquake at 2:30 a. m. was felt the entire distance from Silver Bow to Montana, and at 7 o'clock the second shock was perceptible but not so severe. At Divide, Red Rock, Lima, Montana, windows rattled, dishes fell to the floor, flower pots, were thrown from their stands, lamp chimneys and other glassware suffered, destruction, clocks stopped and buildings were made to sway and crack. At Dillon especially was the first shock severe. The court house walls were cracked and the plaster fell from the ceiling.

Disoriented Workmen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.--The cloak-makers' union of this city has resumed hostilities against the contractors in the hope of abolishing the old system and securing a better scale of wages. Over 1,200 members of the organization are on strike in the seven shops on the East Side. The shirtmakers, 3,000 strong, are said to be on the verge of a conflict with the bosses. Their alleged grievances are small wages, long hours of toil and the dislike said to be entertained for members of labor unions by their employers.

Over to All Rights

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 4.--Miss Apple Huntington, Democrat, daughter of the Episcopal bishop of Central New York, has been elected school commissioner for two years, leading the ticket. She is a lady in several charitable enterprises and is a woman suffragist. She is the first woman to hold elective office in Syracuse.

Three Suffocated by Gas

LANSDOWN, Pa., Nov. 4.--Peter Cheever, his infant daughter, Anna, and John Stolma, were asphyxiated by coal gas this morning at Cheever's home on the outskirts of the town.

LAWYERS LOCUTION.

Second Day's Session of the State Bar Association.

DAYTON'S JUDICIAL BILL

Dividing West Virginia into two Federal Districts Discussed at Length, and Endorsed by the Association--Committee Appointed to Advocate the Measure Before Congress--"Government by Injunction" Receives Distinguished Consideration--Election of Officers--Next Meeting at Charleston During the Session of the Legislature.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 4.--Until almost midnight last night the proposed bill of Congressman A. G. Dayton, dividing West Virginia into two federal judicial districts, was discussed by the West Virginia Bar Association. Mr. George C. Sturgis, Mr. B. M. Ambler, Mr. C. Wood Daily, and Mr. W. N. Miller, spoke in favor of a resolution, recommending to Congress its passage, and Mr. John Bassell and Mr. Flournoy, of Charleston, spoke against the resolution. The advocates of it showed by statistics that the district of West Virginia has more business before it than have the districts of half a dozen states combined, some of which have two districts.

Mr. Flournoy and Mr. Bassell thought the bill as now drafted, would afford no relief, and when the resolution reached a vote voted against it. Every other member of the association favored the measure.

Mr. Dayton, was present and stated that he did not seek the endorsement of the particular bill drawn by him, but he merely wished an endorsement of the idea, and moved that a committee of seven be appointed by the president of the association to go before the house judiciary committee and assist by suggestion in the passage of a measure looking to a division of the state. Several of the members of the association, Messrs. Hubbard, Ambler, Westenhaver, Sturgis, Mason, Davis, and Reynolds. There is an enthusiastic sentiment for the measure, and Mr. Dayton will press it vigorously as soon as Congress convenes.

The subject, "Government by Injunction," was discussed at great length by the association, which pronounced itself almost a unit in favor of the principle, but deplored some of the abuses, which attached to the exercise of this remedy during the late strike in this state.

The morning was taken up with reports of committees and a visit to the University, where the association was received during the chapel hour. President Croghan made an address, and there was a special musical programme rendered by the music department, out of compliment to the attorneys.

In the afternoon D. C. Westenhaver, of Martinsburg, read a paper on the subject of taxation, which in the general discussion which followed on it, was paid a high compliment by a number of the members.

Bernard L. Butler, of Fairmont, read a paper on the subject, "The Rent Remedy," which was followed by the election of officers.

Mr. D. C. Westenhaver, of Martinsburg, was unanimously chosen president, and will be the youngest man who has been given this honor by the association. Several of the members in their nominating speeches paid strong tribute to his ability and usefulness in the association.

James W. Ewing, of Wheeling, was re-elected secretary, and W. N. Miller, of Parkersburg, treasurer.

Henry M. Russell, of Wheeling, B. M. Ambler, of Parkersburg; George E. Price, of Charleston; P. J. Croghan, of Kingwood, and W. P. Willey, of Morgantown, were elected members of the executive committee.

Nell J. Fortney, of Kingwood; George C. Sturgis, of Morgantown, and C. Wood Daily, of Elkins, were elected to represent the association at the next annual meeting of the American Bar Association at San Francisco.

The association and an immense audience composed of the town people, listened to a splendid address before the association to-night, in commencement hall, by Judge Seymour D. Thompson, of St. Louis, editor of the American Law Review, on the subject, "Judicial Supremacy." At its conclusion, a banquet was given to the visitors by the local bar association where good things to eat and drink and witty toasts were taken in until the small hours.

Mr. Ambler was toastmaster. The speakers and their subjects were: "The Woolstack," Judge John H. H. of Griffith; "The Gates Ajar," Judge Okey Johnson; "The Lawyer's Last Appeal," Hon. W. P. Hubbard; "The West Virginia Bar Association," Hon. George C. Sturgis; "The New Woman," C. Wood Daily; "Our Guest," Hon. S. D. Thompson, of St. Louis; "Congress and Circuit," Congressman A. G. Dayton; "Embarrassing Questions," J. W. Vandevort; "Justice of the Peace," S. L. Flournoy.

The next meeting will be held at Charleston during the session of the legislature.

Brought Ports to Time.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.--A dispatch from Constantinople to the Frankfort Zeitung says that the ports, under the threat from the Bulgarian government that unless the promised barks to the Bulgarian bishops in Macedonia should be granted before 10 o'clock a. m. yesterday Bulgaria would declare independence, finally acceded to the demands and granted the barks.

Testimony of the Watch.

COLD SPRING, N.Y., Nov. 4.--There is little doubt that Felix Balta, of Montreal, whose body was found in the Hudson river, was a passenger on the New York Central train wrecked at Garbison, October 24. His watch was stopped at 5:30 o'clock, which is precisely the time the disaster occurred. The total number of victims was twenty-one.

Missouri Town Seized.

LAMAR, Mo., Nov. 4.--The business part of the village of Lamar, fourteen miles west of here, was destroyed by fire this afternoon entailing a loss of $50,000. The Exchange bank, the Bank of Lamar, Brown's general store, Umbricht's drug store, the Liberal Independent, Strickland's grocery, Corbett's grocery and Shelton's notion store were the buildings destroyed.

DISASTROUS WRECK

On the Chesapeake & Ohio, Near Charlottesville, Virginia--Four Killed and Seventeen Injured.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 4.--The Chesapeake & Ohio vestibule express, known as the "F. F. V." from Cincinnati to Washington, was wrecked near Old Shadwell, five miles east of this place, at 1:25 this afternoon. Four persons were killed and seventeen injured. The dead: Henry Burnett, colored porter, Keswick, Va. An Italian woman named Merara, and infant, believed to be from Cincinnati. Phelix Mareno (died after removal to Charlottesville). The injured: Moses Goldblatt, Cincinnati, knee cap fractured. Conductor Schuster, legs injured. Engineer Duke, dangerously hurt. Baggageman Peers, Gordonsville, Va., badly hurt from shoulders down; probably internally injured. A. Merara, badly hurt. Mary Mareno, hurt about the head, but not seriously. Two small children of Mary Mareno, one badly.

It is reported that the body of another Italian child is under the wreck, but this cannot be confirmed. The cause of the accident has not been definitely ascertained, but it is believed to have been due to spreading rails. The engine left the track on a sharp curve and was buried against a rocky hill. All of the cars except the dining car and the Richmond sleeper were derailed. Two cars plunged head foremost down the steep embankment, and one of them went into the river, which in this place skirts the tracks. The day passenger coach and the express car were badly wrecked. As the locomotive plunged from the rails and overturned Engineer Duke was hurled from the cab and crushed under the engine, besides being terribly scalded by escaping steam. He was rescued by his fireman and the conductor. The body of Henry Burnett, the colored porter, was the last recovered. He was terribly mangled, having been in the baggage car. A foot supposed to have been his, was first recovered, and later a portion of the head. The body was later legged out off and died at the hospital at Charlottesville.

Among the uninjured passengers on the train were Senator Platt, of Connecticut, Commission of Pensions H. Clay Evans, and Representative Walter Evans, of Louisville.

HIGH OLD TIME

In the Lower House of the Austrian Reichsrath--New Talk About the Bear Pits in the United States Congress.

VIENNA, Nov. 4.--When the lower house of the reichsrath reassembled to-day the acting president, Herr Abrahamovitz, declared the chair would not yield to intimidation, and that he proposed to resist any attempts to violate the standing orders, thus protecting the interests of the state and constitution. This statement was the signal for uproar and disorder upon the part of the Leftists.

Amid increasing confusion the Leftists continued to oppose the decision of the bill for the prolonging for a year the Austro-Hungarian compromise, although the house had adopted a resolution to debate it. Dr. Lueger, burgo-master of Vienna, whom Herr Abrahamovitz had invited to speak, was unable to make himself heard. The Leftists actually entered the president's tribune and refused to budge. Dr. Lueger displayed a placard inscribed: "I claim the right to speak." This was greeted by an increased tumult.

Two Leftists arose and began to speak simultaneously. Herr Abrahamovitz rang the bell repeatedly and called them to order; they refused to desist. The confusion had now become a bedlam and Herr Abrahamovitz abruptly suspended the sitting by leaving the chair.

When the sitting was resumed the uproar was renewed. When Dr. Lueger made a fresh attempt to speak, Herr Wolff, of the Schoemer group, began reading aloud from a newspaper. The opposing parties fiercely abused each other and Dr. Lueger denounced the Schoemer group as a "pack of street boys."

The sitting was again suspended and yet again resumed, but it was impossible for Dr. Lueger to get a hearing. At half past ten this evening Leftists were shouting, bellowing and reading newspaper articles at the top of their lungs. The uproar was incessant.

At 11 o'clock many of the members began shouting together "close the sitting, close the sitting." This they kept up in a kind of chorus, while Herr Wolff and others beat time for them with the desk. After a while the noise subsided a little so that Dr. Lueger could be heard, and he went on condemning the compromise with Hungary, because, as he alleged, "the Jew Maryara want to put their hands into the Czech as well as the German money bags."

After several attempts to get the sitting to adjourn, the uproar was resumed, Herr Wolff banging the lid of his desk and several Czech deputies struggling to wrench it from him. The most unparliamentary and abusive interruptions were exchanged.

Count Radoni, the premier, was present for part of the time and was supposed to have a decree of adjournment signed with the emperor in his pocket. Assigned by a well informed deputy, the emperor said early in the morning: "I won't be dictated to by Schoener and Wolff."

The deputy understood this to mean that Count Radoni would not be allowed to resign whatever turn events might take.

VIENNA, Nov. 5.--2 a. m.--Amid an uneasy scuffle between Herr Wolff and a number of Czech deputies a vote has just been taken and carried on a motion to close the debate. But the house is still agitated with the prospect of another all night session.
